“Sure we believe in God and we believe Jesus saves. We believe that Jesus transforms our lives. We give lip service to the Gospel, and we believe it’s all about grace. But if we have an addiction, or if we’re troubled by fear, anger, anxiety, or if we’re caught in the sticky spider’s web of needing the approval of man and want to get out, or if we’re struggling to bring down some sort of other giant in our lives, then we’re far too prone to want to do the work ourselves. We mistakenly believe it’s all up to us to conquer the giant. We still function as if killing the giant depends upon us.” ~Louie Giglio, Goliath Must Fall

16. “His divine power has given us _____ we need for a godly life through our knowledge of him who called us by his own glory and goodness.” (2Peter 1:3)
17. Don’t _____ your giant! If concealed, it finds power in the darkness, but when confessed, it loses that power.
18. _____ brings the light of Christ to shine upon a problem, issue, or giant.

“I have been crucified with Christ (that is, in Him, I have shared His crucifixion); it is no longer I who live, but Christ lives in me. The life I now live in the body, I live by faith (by adhering to, relying on, and completely trusting) in the Son of God, who loved me and gave Himself up for me.” (Galatians 2:20)

Your Story Matters – Week 7

The Power of One

My dad's tribute to my mom's story:

“To others, she was a great teacher of Bible study, of English and History, and a gracious hostess. To me, she was my partner, best friend, helper, and the love of my life for more than the 57 plus years we were married.

She raised two Godly daughters in whom I have endless pride.

When I can sleep, I go to sleep with tears, and wake with tears. I know with God's help, these waves of grief will become ripples.

She left happy and without pain in God's perfect timing.

As difficult as this grief is, I am thankful that I am the one bearing it and not her.

She was the epitome of Semper Fi, and she never disappointed me.”

Your story matters dear friends.

You never know when you will be on the last page of your earthly story, and my prayer is that all of us will be ready to leave when the Lord Jesus tells us that His work in us is 'complete'.

Is your life centered on Jesus? Is He the focus of your daily story? Do those around you know that Jesus is your everything?

Don't waste your life! Live for eternity! Share Jesus with all of those who come across your path.

Thank you for being a part of Flourish this fall. I pray and hope that I will see you again in 2018 as we continue to go deeper into God's Word together.

Happy Thanksgiving, Merry Christmas, and Happy New Year!

I love you all,
Marjie
