

1. The _____ is a complete work in which many stories combine to tell one story.
 2. The book of Ruth gives us the _____.
 3. In the time of the judges, every man did what was right in his own _____. (Judges 17:6)
 4. Naomi would return to _____ where God was worshipped.
 5. The decision for Ruth to stay with Naomi was all-encompassing because it meant she would _____ the God of Israel.
 6. It was Naomi's _____, virtue, and grace - the fruit the Lord had grown and preserved in her.
 7. Ruth didn't want her brush with the God of Israel to end, so she clung to the _____ that linked her to Him.
 8. Ruth's conversion is evidence of the _____ grace of God.
 9. God delights in showing mercy to the least likely _____.
 10. _____ is bound up with the central religious life of the believing community.
 11. Ruth was seeking _____.
 12. God is our _____; He puts His wings around us and provides for us.
 13. Boaz is the family's kinsman _____.
 14. Ruth put herself at the _____ of the lord of the harvest.
 15. Boaz is a _____ of our Lord Jesus Christ in His relationship to His bride, the church.
 16. _____ times in this chapter, there is the mention of feet.
 17. Boaz was God's provision for Ruth, and Jesus is God's _____ for us.
 18. God made Ruth an _____ of David and the Messiah.
 19. The story of Ruth shows us there are no insignificant _____ in God's plan. Big doors swing on small hinges!
 20. No matter your age or situation please know this: Jesus, your kinsman redeemer has not forgotten _____!
-

The way Boaz speaks to Ruth reflects how God speaks to us through His Word:

- He accepts us
- He assures us
- Ruth reflects a needy woman, unable to rescue herself, requesting her kinsman redeemer to cover her with his protection, redeem her, and make her his wife.
- In the same way, Jesus has bought us for Himself and made us His own beloved bride.
- Jesus is the true kinsman redeemer of all who call on Him in faith.