1. It's important for us to know that we can take Jesus at _____.
2. One of the first things Jesus teaches us about prayer is to keep on _____.
3. God is better and _____ than the most tender earthly parents.
4. God is free from imperfection and partiality and is ready and _____ to help us.
5. Praying is all a matter of our faith - do we _____ Him to do this?
6. The _____ of our faith is perfect and just and will always do right by His children.
7. God alone knows the changes and the _____ of events that must take place before the answer to prayer arrives.
8. A sudden crisis or emergency leaves no time to _____ a relationship with God through prayer.
9. It is critically important for us to cultivate a personal relationship with our Heavenly Father through _____ in Jesus Christ now before any crisis erupts.
10. Jesus saw them, He went to them, and He brought them _____ the crisis in such a way that they were all strengthened in their faith.
11. One of the keys to prayer for all of us is _____ in Christ.
12. Abiding means: maintaining _____ with Jesus so that His life works in and through us to produce fruit.
13. We do not live on _____, but we are in relationship with the one, True Vine, Jesus.
14. Abiding in Christ is an aspect of our relationship with Jesus that needs to be _____.
15. As we abide, we have a strong word of hope and _____ in Galatians 6:9.
16. Being perfectly human, Jesus wanted _____ as He faced the cross.
His struggle in the garden can be understood in light of what would happen to Him:
  - He would be made sin for us—2 Corinthians 5:21
  - He would bear the curse of the law—Galatians 3:13
  - He would be forsaken by His Father—Mark 15:34 'My God, My God why have you forsaken me?'
17. Abba is the Aramaic word that means 'papa' or 'daddy', and it reveals the intimate _____ between our Lord and His Father.
18. Christ-like love is an act of the will and not _____.
19. Jesus commanded us to love our enemies because that's exactly what He did for us—while we were still sinners Christ died for us: _____.
